

Saturday, Feb. 29, 2020

Creative Age Symposium

Morning Keynote Presentation

Can Creative Expression Be Medicine?

Dr. Jeremy Noble, president of the Foundation for Art & Healing and founder of the UnLonely Project Film Festival, Brookline, MA

Afternoon Keynote Presentation

Raising Connected, Happy and Successful Kids through Art

Erica Curtis, Certified Marriage and Family Therapist

Author, speaker and instructor at UCLArts & Healing, San Juan Capistrano, CA

Breakout Sessions and Workshops

4 one-hour sessions with 3 to 4 choices per session

Bolstering Dementia Care through Music Listening, Choral Singing, and Support Groups

Emily Christensen and Alex Mack, Jewish Family Services, Salt Lake City

Art Therapy

Vicki Morgan, art therapist, president Utah Art Therapy Association University of Utah Hospital

Neuropsychiatric Institute, Salt Lake City

Music Therapy

Karen Carter, music therapist, president Utah Music Therapy Association, Logan

Theater for Life

Dr. Brant Wadsworth, psycho-drama therapist, Executive Director Canyon Creek Services, Cedar City

Dance

Joni Urry Wilson, studio director, and director of the Virginia Tanner Studio Program, University of Utah, Salt Lake City and Chara Huckins Malaret, Tanner Dance.

Late Bloomer: Inspiration to Reinvent

Debra Eve, founder and writer Later Bloomer Blog

Minding Motion for Graceful Aging

Sharon Daurelle, master lead teaching artist

Health Music: The Sound of Life

Dr. Massimiliano Frani, concert pianist, founder Genote, Fruit Heights

Mindfulness and Health: The Art of Conscious Living

Dr. David Tate, psychologist, Intermountain Health Care, St. George

Befriending Challenging Emotions with Creativity

Erica Curtis

Deep Dive with Dr. Jeremy Noble

Dr. Jeremy Noble

Flex Your Creative Imagination: An Introduction to Music in Motion

Barbara J. Lewis and Nicholas Cendese, Repertory Dance Theatre (RDT)

Music in Community: El Sistema in Utah

Victor Petro-Eschler, Executive Director of Salty Cricket Composers Collective

Artifying Spiritual Care: A Portfolio

Saundra Shanti, Board Certified Multi-faith Chaplain, University of Utah, Salt Lake City

Speakers subject to change.